

LAKE DENTON

Lake Denton is a 66 acre freshwater lake in Highlands County, located between Avon Park and Sebring, Florida. Diving in Lake Denton is managed by the Phil Elder, of the Lake Denton Church Camp which is located on its shore. This lake is very popular as a training site, and also with certified divers.

Address:

790 Lake Denton Road
Avon Park, FL 33825

Contact Info:

Phone: 863-453-3627
Phil: 863-634-8722

Hours:

Entry into Lake Denton is via the nearby church camp. The are open from 9am-6pm daily.

Driving directions:

From DOWN TOWN ORLANDO ON I-4

Travel West on I-4 past Disney to exit 55 to merge onto US-27 Southbound.

Drive for 50 minutes (miles) until you reach Avon Park.

Drive through Avon Park for about 1 mile (passing the fast food restaurants) until you see a sign post for the SF Community College, and turn left here.

At the end of SFCC drive, take a right, and then a left onto Lake Denton Drive.

The church camp is about a quarter mile down on the right, marked with a dive flag.

For Scuba classes:

See Map for directions.

Admission Fee:

Admission is $10.00 per diver, this includes access to the lake and your parking fee.

The instructor will have each student to fill in the Lake Denton Liability Release Form, collect $10 from everybody, and pay for the group.

